

CLYFFE NOTES

This Month, Town Hall, No Business Meeting

This month the business meeting was substituted with a Town Hall Meeting. As Their Excellencies approach the end of their first year as Baron and Baroness, we discussed their original goals and what they've accomplished, what needed improvement and what new goals can we as a Barony can make. Along with the names of those in attendance, the following is a very rough transcript of the meeting.

In Attendance: Molly, Erwin, Gormr, Serena, Matt, Isolda, Adriana, Gwenlian, Michael, Skylar, Lore,.

Barony announcement: Would be nice to have a sponsor for the quest stations at Coronation.

Questions for the Baronage:

4 goals from the beginning of their reign: Create a climate of respect, recruit new members, fund raising, make it fun.

Serena: Site fees have been $400-500 for site fees. It's going to be higher, so fund raising needs to be expanded. Outside of events it would be nice to do some fund raisers as well.

Kelly: what kind of FR?

Serena: Other Baronies have done Bake Sales, Make things for sale, Yard sales, etc.

Molly: A portion of a personal yard sale could go to the Barony. T-shirts are also a good idea. (we have an embroidery machine).

Ro: How about a booth at the County Fair. FR at Blessing of the Fleet.

Erwin: We need to explore using the Celtic Festival

Molly: Their focus is Scottish/Irish/Celtic. Since that's a much narrower focus than we are, perhaps we should use other sources.

Isolda: I've had an idea in the back of my head on getting oval bumper stickers (like OBX) that have PW for Pennsic War in a calligraphic font.

Molly: A dunk Tank: Dunk His/Her Excellency

Adriana: What about a FR involving food?

Ro: Polaroid snapshots in garb

Molly: Halloween in the Park put our name out there in the community. Worked very well.

Serena: Wal-Mart lets non-profit orgs hold FR out front.

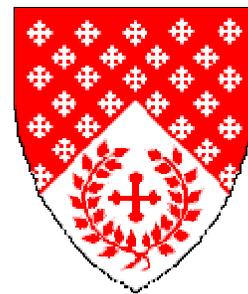

Erwin: In the past Lowe's has a BBQ outside for FR.

Serena: The list of things to do is endless.

Molly: FR can help us if we have a bad event, if the site-fee is large.

Molly: Recruiting and keeping new members.

Isolda: get them involved in something else. Get them to the meetings.

Letter from Their Excellencies

Onto the most noble populace of Dun Carraig, greetings from your Baronage. As We contemplate Our one-year anniversary as your Baronage, We looked back on the promises we made to Dun Carraig. We hoped to foster a climate of respect within the Barony, and have been rewarded by an overall sense of community. Our people have been able to speak freely to each other and to their leadership. The Seadogs e-list has been made public, underscoring the commitment of this Barony to be open and convivial to all who enter our lands. We pledged to work with Our Chatelaine to help recruit new members. While We cannot take credit for the recent growth within Our Barony, We happily welcome our newest members (and those returning from sojourn) and all are inspired by your energy and enthusiasm. We have watched Lady Serena ably manage Our coffers and been honored to host several activities at Our home. It seems that We have meet Our initial goals and We were at a loss as to what direction to follow next. Fortunately, We had the privilege to meet with several of you at the last “Town Hall” meeting, and heard your suggestions with open ears and willing hearts. To that end, We, Erwin and Mary Isabel do pledge to bend Our will and service to the following goals:

- 1) We will continue to aid and support fundraising efforts within this Barony. We are regularly attracting larger numbers to our events and may need to look for larger sites. The plus side is that larger numbers mean greater profits for the Barony. The down side is that larger sites require larger deposits. Also, We need to look at replacing items as they become worn or are used. The kitchen tent will someday need replacing. Award medallions will need to be purchased. Wouldn't it be nice to have a dayshade for the Barony to sit under during events? All of these goals have price tags attached, so let's get Our creative thinkers working on fundraising ideas. Unfortunately, the Baronial Shower Guild suggestion (from Barony Erwin) was already shot down; while it does not lack for willing customers, it does lack for good taste. Baron Erwin and I have pledged to buy the first round of drinks after the Barony breaks $5000 free and clear (not earmarked for an event, etc.) Please help make that happen for us and the Barony.
- 2) We will encourage and support renewing the monthly Newcomer Meetings. During the “Town Hall” meeting, it was mentioned that folks found the previous Newcomer Meetings useful. We are searching for an individual to spearhead this effort. Note: This does not mean teaching all of the classes, it entails arranging teachers and scheduling the classes. We are able to get a room at the Southern Maryland Higher Education Center on Tuesdays, so we have a public meeting space for interested folks to learn more about us. We will also need teachers. If you've been playing a year or more, you probably have information that would benefit a new person. Classes can range from teaching the heraldic colors, making your set up look more “period” for events or even how to get started making garb. The classes do not need to be complicated (and probably will work better if they aren't). Let's make sure that when someone shows an interest in the SCA, we give them a good chance to find their niche.
- 3) We will continue to host and support social activities for Dun Carraig and their friends. This will include caravanning to events, Baronial “sweat shops”, weekly lunches and demos. (Erwin and I are still negotiating the “Baronial Sleep-over” suggestion, smile). We support the efforts of Our people to form sub-groups and guilds to explore their own personal interests within the SCA. We ask only that these groups bring the fruits of their efforts back to the Barony, so that all may benefit. Sponsor workshops to make silk banners, or wrap saris, teach classes, travel to events, oh I know!...make largess (you can't think We'd let a golden opportunity to ask for largess go by!).

The last year has had amazing growth and renewal for Dun Carraig. These changes are the result of hard work, done by Our people. We have had many changes in Officers and are gratified to see many of Our populace staying on as Officers, but striving to learn a new position. We have many people join Our Barony, striving to learn a new hobby. A Barony is made great by the efforts of it's people. Thank you for allowing Us to stand in the presence of greatness.

Your Baronage, Erwin & Mary Isabel

Seneschal' s Report

There is nothing new to report this month.

Did you find a mistake? Did I misquote someone? Please (kindly) let me know. Email me at Chronicler@duncarraig.net and I'll correct it in the next newsletter.

Chronicler' s Report

Greetings to the Barony! It's my first month as Chronicler and I'm looking forward to serving all of you in this capacity to the best of my ability. Ashamedly, I hadn't read the Clyffe Notes, until now. The biggest impact I think this will have is that I'm coming in with a lot of my own ideas. So, the newsletter has a very different look now. I've started a few new articles in the newsletter—Get to Know Your Fellow Dun Carraigites: A regular article spotlighting a member of the barony. QnA: A fun question posed to the Barony that anyone can answer by sending to me. Then the answers will be published here. And Personals: No, Not Those Kind: A place to highlight bright spots (and losses) of members in our Barony. I'm also adding a Baronial Progress bar next to the calendar as an easy reference to what events our Baron and Baroness will be attending. If needed, I'll have a Corrections section. So if you see something wrong in the newsletter, especially if I've misquoted someone, please let me know and I'll put it in the next month's edition.

As Chronicler I'm sure the next few sentences will become very familiar to me over the next couple years. First, if anyone has anything they want to put in the newsletter (like articles, poetry, songs, artwork, etc.) please send them to me. I'll need fodder like that every month. Also, now that I'm in the primary position, I'll need a deputy. If anyone is interested, let me know at a meeting, or email me. It'd be really nice to have a backup person in case I really can't make it to a meeting.

Once again, I'd like to thank everyone for giving me the opportunity to serve in this capacity.

Herald' s Report

Well, the first monthly Heraldic Meeting went quite well, if I do say so myself. There were a total of eight present for some or all of the afternoon, including Khadir, whose sage heraldic advice was immensely appreciated. We got name submissions ready for three of the participants and got a basic design for devices ready for conflict-checking for two people.

We've got some further researching to do for names/devices for the others. All in all, a very nice start.

Webminister' s Report

I am working on a new setup for photos on the webpage. I should have it up soon, currently I am working on getting all the current photos into the new setup. If people have photos, if they get those to me, I will get them put in.

Minister of Arts and Sciences' Report

This story can fit 75-125 words. Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context. Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols. Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Knight Marshal' s Report

There is nothing new to report this month.

Photos not taken by me are courtesy of Antonio Felluci and Skorri (please let me know if you know this gentle's last name.)

Minister of the Lists' Report

I'm now officially warranted, replacing Lady Lore Bubeck, who stepped down after six long years as the MOL. She thinks this is going to give her more time to retain, run the Middle Eastern event, and work on garb, but, then again, she did volunteer to be the Regional MOL for Maryland. My current major goal is to MOL under a couple experienced people before Challenge, so that I'll be ready to run the show when that comes along.

Town Hall (cont'd. from p.1)

Molly: we can get the rooms at the SMHIC for another Tues/month.

Serena: Herald meeting went well. Got the new members involved. Also, asked if they were interested in dance. Maybe a class 1/month. But, we need other regulars to be involved too.

Gormr: resurrect the newbie classes, newcomers nights.

Molly: We need people to step up to teach some newcomer classes.

Ro: Would there be interest/input in a mock court in a monthly or newcomers meeting.

Adriana: Ask the newbies if they have ideas for topics for classes.

Molly: In order to do this, we need people to be proactive in leading these classes/meetings.

Ro: We need to develop our sense of community. We want to do things together...even outside of events.

Molly: A great idea, but we don't want people to get uncomfortable b/c they don't get along with someone, and the idea of "community" is being pushed so far.

Erwin: Winter is nearing an end, and sweatshops will soon start up again. The idea of camping in our yard has been expressed.

Serena: Don't forget we have another weekend at Kings Landing Park, and the cabins. Tom and I have discussed having a non-event weekend for anyone who wants to camp. We can also plan in advance, a dinner get together if people are interested.

Molly: For Skylar, as a younger barony member, are there things happening that you like? Things you'd like to see?

Skylar: I'll email you.

Molly: in conclusion: People would like to see more fund Raising and opportunities to get together.

Erwin: Dun Carraig Shower Guild.

Serena: I'd like to see officer meetings pre-posted as a reminder.

Erwin: How are we doing? I'd like to see myself at more events.

Molly: we're planning on purchasing a pavilion for events. We'd like people to join us. We'd like to encourage the new fighters to be out there fighting. And to have them fighting for someone.

Ro: What do you think is your best accomplishment?

Erwin: for me, I feel we brought back enjoyment for individuals at events.

Molly: I'd go along with His Excellency. But, not that we created that enjoyment, but that people enjoyed themselves with us.

We're here to facilitate your growth. But in order to do that, you have to participate, not only at a baronial level (which we do very well), but at a Kingdom Level. It's hard to recommend Kingdom awards for people who aren't involved in Kingdom activities.

Exchequer Report

(For February 5th Meeting)

My 4th quarter report was done on time and turned in. The Domesday (end of year) report was also done on time and turned in. The Financial Policy changes were made and it was turned in with the 4th Quarter and Domesday reports per Kingdom for approval, so waiting on that now.

I am still checking around for a good bank to move our account to, due to various fees now involved. (I will be checking out PNC soon, if anyone has any comments about them please let me know). (UPDATE 2/20 – some charges were reversed by SunTrust and account type was switched. Switching banks might not be necessary after all, will know for sure shortly).

Per Kingdom Policy I need to publish the first two pages of the Domesday Report and go over them with the Barony. (If not the pages themselves, at least the numbers). They will be published in our Clyffe Notes and I'm going over them tonight as well, to cover both. The numbers are listed below this report. This also pertains to the Quarterly Reports and those are also listed below for the 4th Quarter.

I need those who were working on the repairs for the shed (I believe Lore and/or Khadir and/or possibly our Baron had some plans to do something to the shed) to please get it done so the shelves can be put into place. Inventory must be totally complete and the report by the Quartermaster turned in to me by the end of March to be included in my 1st Quarter Report.

Theron (Tom) still has funds available regarding the baronial tent repair ($20 approved); & Mathias (Jim) regarding general Quartermaster supplies for loaner gear and kitchen supplies ($75 approved). Please get these taken care of soon or I will need to place the funds back into the general fund.

Personals: No, Not Those Kind

To highlight the honors, celebrations, and losses of those closest to us.

- Congratulations to Sir Theron Andronikos and his family on his initiation into the Order of Chivalry at the Tourney of Ymir.

- Congratulations to Lord Gormr chroniclerATdunscarraig.net for his induction into Lochmere's Order of the Blasted Oak, our neighbor's service award, at their Mid-Winter's Revel.

New Column: Get to Know your Fellow Dun Carraige: Isolda de Crosthwaite

Chronicler's Note: This is one of my new monthly additions to our newsletter. Each month I'll ask someone to give the story of how he/she became involved in the SCA, and/or Dun Carraig. As an introduction, I'll start with myself.

My first glimpse of the SCA was in Jacksonville, FL, where I attended JU. A small (and I mean very small) Renaissance Fair was put on, and a friend and I went to go check it out. I was so enthused, I asked around about participating the following day, and was directed to the gentle playing the part of Queen Elizabeth I. We arranged to meet at her house the next morning, where she handed me some loaner garb. Throughout the day other participants gave me information about the SCA. It was a great "first event." Due to class schedule, and social life, I never pursued it at that point.

Fast-forward about 5 years, and I was living back in Maryland, working for the same park system I currently do, but at the Visitor Center to Patuxent River Park. One Sunday morning the schedule said there was a group labeled 'SCA' at one of the camp sites. Since it was my duty to patrol the park throughout the day, I decided to go see if this was the same SCA I'd found back in Florida.

Sure enough, it was, (turns out it was Storvik's Novice Tourney, and, oddly enough, Gormr's first event). So again, I asked around about the group and determined to look more into getting involved this time.

I went to a few garb workshops, some in Storvik, some in Dun Carraig. Storvik's Post Pennsic Revel was my first official event, and Birthday was my first Dun Carraig event.

Since then, I became more heavily involved with Lochmere, joining their singing group, and Laydies Fayre. Now that I'm more firmly ensconced in Dun Carraig (oh yeah, and married too), I consider this my home Barony (no, don't go bragging to Lochmere about that too much, please...ha-ha).

As I go forward I want to try to become more involved in illumination arts, maybe concentrating on pigment used for paint and ink, and researching patterns to use for personas that might not have had illumination works done in their time and place. I also want focus some time to make some of my own garb (and some for Gormr too) and working on my persona. On the side, I'd like to try any art form I happen to come across.

Chronicler's Note: In this new section, I plan on posing a question to the Barony. Anyone receiving this newsletter is welcome to respond, and the answers will be posted here the next month in whatever space I have available. Answers can be sent to Chronicler <AT> duncarraig.net.
