Vol. XXIX, no. V

Barony of Dun Carraig

Greetings on to the members of the Barony of Dun Carraig from your Baron and Baroness, Harald and Ceridwen!

The College of Southern Maryland Renaissance Festival demo was a great success! Thanks and kudos to Coblait del Riata, who organized and strategized so that we would have a fine showing at the demo. We had a great turnout from many people in the barony, we had music, we had fighting, we had fiber arts, we had awesome "tour guides" to lead people through our displays, our demonstration area looked awesome, and many of the Charles County community members at the Ren Fest showed genuine interest in our little bit of living history! We also got a great list of names to contact and one young man has already come out to fighter practice!

His Excellency and I are extremely pleased with the new Baronial pavilion, which has been out at a number of events so far. The next thing we need to do paint the uprights and get finials for the poles around the edge of the tent. We'll have a project day at some point this spring when it is nice enough to be outside (and not too beastly hot) and paint poles and finials.

The weather is turning nicer, the tourney season is well underway and we have a new Sultan and Sultana on the Atlantian throne! We are looking forward to a Baronial showing at events like Ruby Joust, King's Assessment, and Pennsic, just to name a few.

As you're making your long-range plans, consider registering for Pennsic NOW so that we can get an idea of who will be staying in our Baronial encampment. Baroness Lore Bubeck has volunteered to be the Pennsic Land Agent for the barony for Pennsic. Vivat!

We remain, in service to the BEST barony in the Knowne World, Atlantia and the Dream,
Harald and Ceridwen

Lexington Park festival this Sunday - between Gates 2 & 3, where flat-tops used to be. Have at least 20x20 space. Chris can provide heavy gear to look at, Caitilin ditto rapier. Need to have a marshall & and MOL if there is going to be fighting.

CSM demo 4/21-22 - Will have potluck. Ceridwen will bring Baronial pavilion.

Having planning meeting with BnB next week. Have Feastocrats (Alexina & Isolde, with Rose helping). Champions have to design a contest. Hope to have bid ready by next business meeting.

New Business

Pennsic is right around the corner. Who will register camp? Lore has done that, ask her if she is doing land grab.

Chris will be away for a week next month, Naila will have keys to everything.

Mary presented red & white kumihimo cord to Ceridwen.

Officer Reports

B & B's Report

Things are fine. Because of work scheduling changes, His Excellency can't confirm attendance at events any more. Neither will be attending coronation. Her Excellency will be at CSM demo, Tournament of Chivalry, Return to Crecy, not at Crown Tourney. One or both will be at Ruby Joust, and at either Summer University or war practice. Planning to attend 2 weeks at Pennsic. Harald will be at fighter practice tomorrow.
